The Process of Spiritual Assessment

Setting the Stage for Spiritual Dialogue
Setting the Stage for Spiritual Dialogue

- Communicating an openness to learning
- Communicating an openness to sharing
Being Explicit about Values

“It is vital that we be more explicit about values because we use them, however unconsciously, as a means of therapeutic change. . . being explicit actually protects our clients. The more subtle our values, the more likely we are to be hidden persuaders. The more open we are about our view, the more choice clients will have in electing to be influenced or not to be influenced” (Bergin, 1985, p. 107).
