

ABOUT US

With over 1200 diverse members across Canada, CASC/ACSS embraces a holistic approach to health and wellbeing, with a special focus on spiritual and religious care.

CASC/ACSS professionals serve people of any faith, belief system, or no faith at all, offering respectful, inclusive, and high-quality spiritual health care.

We offer educational programs for individuals preparing to become Certified Spiritual Care Practitioners, Certified Psychospiritual Therapists, and Certified Supervisor-Educators in a variety of institutional, community and private-practice settings.
